Acknowledgments

The Allen Consulting Group wishes to acknowledge the assistance and contribution of many people in the preparation of this report.

First, we benefited from the earlier work of an internal team from the Department of Human Services (DHS) — Graham Brewster, Trish McCluskey, Deirdre Pinto and Lucy Young.

We also wish to acknowledge the contribution of a number of other DHS officers. In particular, we would like to thank:

- Members of the Steering Committee for the project, who provided very helpful comments on the draft report;
- Elda Colagrande, Anthony Gust and Ming Ng for their excellent data analysis;
- Christine Roughead and Michael Naughton for their helpful discussions, ideas and comments;
- the child protection staff of the Western Metropolitan Region, who kindly spent time with us explaining their processes and reflecting on developments in child protection; and
- finally, Joanna Birdseye who capably (and cheerfully) steered the project and us.

Dr Rosemary Sheehan also contributed significantly to the project and the report. In particular, Chapter Three draws extensively on her paper ‘Child Protection and the Legal Process: A Discussion Paper’ (unpublished, 2003).

We were also very fortunate to have the opportunity to visit the Children’s Court and are particularly grateful to Mr Brian Wynn-Mackenzie, a Magistrate of the Court, who generously took the time to show us the Court and explain its operations, and to Karen Mapleston, Manager of the Children’s Court Advocacy Unit, who arranged the visit.
